The information given here will be used to help the interview flow, thus the length of your responses is not important: you should try to ensure that your reasons for applying for a position are made clear and straight to the point.

1. Which three skills will you bring to the BRAMUN Leadership Team that, you believe, are extremely relevant and make you stand out? Explain your answer.
2. Choose any committee and list two topics you would like to see discussed at next year's conference and explain why.
3. If you were free to set up an online BRAMUN or MUN conference, what would you do differently from other conferences and what would remain the same? (Think about changes or suggestions you have for BRAMUN or MUN in general.)
4. If you met Secretary General Antonio Guterres, what feedback would you give him in relation to the role of the UN in the year of 2020?
5. Please list all the MUN conferences you have attended and your roles at those conferences (e.g. AASB MUN 2020 - Security Council delegate; BRAMUN 2019 - Human Rights chair, etc.).
6. Which advisor or chaperone currently at BRAMUN best knows you as an MUN participant and would be able to speak on your behalf?
7. Rank your top positions in order of your preference. (Rank number 1 as your first choice, and so on). If you are not awarded one of your top positions, please list any positions for which you do NOT want to be considered by writing "no". If you are applying for a position as a Special Chair or Vice-chair, please indicate what ideas you are considering for that committee in the space that follows the chart.
